Much more than mountains.

There are many ways to see Majorca, but none quite like ours. Don’t miss the chance to enjoy unforgettable experiences with a focus on healthy, different, ecologically aware aspects of all the island has to offer you, with full attention to safety and quality but at extremely reasonable prices: “activities in a natural environment”. Majorca has thousands of magical, secluded spots and is rich in the kind of history that only a guide with local knowledge can show you and properly explain.

Satisfaction and safety, our signs of quality.

Right from the minute you decide to contract our services we will do everything we can to ensure that you or your clients enjoy to the full, individually and/or as a group, the special experience offered by the activity you have chosen. This is our top priority when planning our packages and activities.

The prevention of accidents is essential to ensure that every adventure has a happy end, and this is only possible with the proper training, experience and equipment. We have qualified professional staff responsible for each of our specialities, third party liability insurance, accident insurance and all our equipment is approved and fully up-to-date.

Innovation

Our main objective is for our clients to experience unique occasions with a product that is, as far as possible, tailor-made to meet their personal hopes and expectations. In addition to classic products in the market for active tourism, we at Karakorum Adventure want to create and develop new adventures that no other service provider in Majorca can offer you, such as bike-ballooning, crossing the reserve of Llevant, walking and sailing, etc,… all products exclusive to Karakorum Adventure, and all this together with our policy of a flexible and personal approach means that our clients have always given our services a very high rating in quality questionnaires.

And more than you can imagine, so just please propose!

WHAT WE WILL GIVE YOU?

Professional guides and staff with the appropriate qualifications as technically versed sportspersons in each of the specific activities, in full compliance with Spanish legislation concerning professional guides in natural environments, and all highly experienced in their own sector.

Full third party and accident insurance, proof of which will be provided for the contracting party.

A professional and quality image in front of your clients

Organisation of the guides and groups to ensure that the chosen activity runs smoothly.

Fully equipped guides including all necessary first-aid kit, safety equipment and group provision items.

Weekly programme explanation or briefing for the clients prior to the first excursion, with full descriptions and technical information about every tour to make sure that the level of abilities required for each excursion fully meets the skill and expectations of each client.

Short personal evaluation with questions on quality and forms for the client to fill in if he is willing to do so after the excursion programme; this will help us to improve our offer for the coming season and the quality of the services we provide.

A calm, professional and reliable attitude and approach.

An easy hiking route in the mountains of the Sierra de Tramuntana, along marvellous trails built out of dry stone. By the houses of Ca’n Mico we will stop for a break to refresh ourselves with a drink of fresh natural orange juice, a special product of the island made of the ripe oranges growing in the valley of Soller, while we contemplate a classical example of traditional Majorcan architecture. On leaving Ca’n Mico we start our descent to the port of Soller, where this tour ends.

This beautiful route takes us along tracks full of history as we pass by old properties that transport us back in time to Majorca in bygone days, such as the hermitage “S’Ermita de Betlem” or “s’Alqueria Vella.” For much of the time the path is hardly half a metre wide, and offers breath-taking panoramic views over the Bay of Alcúdia. The route ends close to the sea, where we will enjoy a wonderful Majorcan style picnic.

The trip takes us on BTT through the rural areas of the eastern peninsula of Majorca along a combination of gravel tracks, bride paths and a few byroads. Ideal for anyone with a minimum amount of experience and ability on mountain bikes, and you will love to be far from the beaten tourist tracks in the less well-known interior part of the Natural Park.

This one is the most well-known and popular excursions on the island and should only be attempted by fit people used to exercises. The route is known as Majorca’s Grand Canyon and passes between impressive rock walls more than 200 metres high and along a river bed, carved out of the solid rock by the action of the water over the years.

A fantastic excursion along the west coast of the island by kayak. On the way we will stop a few times to jump from various rocks and view a magnificent cave which has its entrance right by the water’s edge. The cave is not very large but has wonderful rock formations and very beautiful lakes inside.

We return to the mountains of the Sierra de Tramuntana, close to Soller, to cross one of the more popular gorges called Na Mora. This gorge is not very long but extremely beautiful. It features everything you might expect to find in a gorge: technical down-climbing, jumps and rope work, rappelling, etc.

Its own very special characteristic is its exit which gives directly onto the sea, where a fast motor launch will be waiting to take us back along the pretty coast to the Port of Soller.

CROSSING OF LLEVANT

3 days 4 nights

What the price includes:
Authorised mountains guides, insurance, back-up logistics and support vehicle for luggage and transfers, accommodation in hotels (double rooms) or hostels with half board.

Description of the programme:
The rugged eastern part of Majorca is less well-known but is an ideal location for this three-day trip through the natural reserve of Llevant, with different overnight stops on the way. It offers a magnificent combination of unspoilt white sandy beaches and the medium height mountains of the eastern Majorcan coastal area. This is an ideal excursion for a first taste of long hikes and for all walking enthusiasts.

Minimum equipment requirements the client must provide:
- Good sturdy shoes for the activity (climbing or hiking boots)
- Water for each day, at least 1½ litres - Lunch during the daily trip
- Suitable clothing for the season
- Lightweight summer sleeping bag for sleeping in the hostel
- Personal documentation

Location for this activity:
Nature Park of the Eastern Peninsula.
The trip starts in Cala Ratjada and ends in Artà.

Detailed information on each day or excursion

1st stage, Cala Ratjada - S’Arenalet d’Aubarca:
This is the first stage of the programme with a gentle beginning and not much height to climb. The whole day is spent close to the coast, heading in a north-eastern direction through the natural park area. It is a very beautiful trip with a changing landscape of beaches, sand dunes and tracks.

2nd stage, S’Arenalet d’Aubarca – Ermita (hermitage) de Artà:
This is the shortest distance but covers the greatest total difference in height. We leave the NE coast, heading towards the Bay of Alcúdia. We will climb the highest hill in the Parque Natural de Llevant, called Sa Talaia Freda, with a total height of 564 m. During the hike we will see a wonderful panorama of views over the Bay of Alcúdia, central plain of Majorca and the northern mountains of the Tramuntana.

3rd stage, Ermita de Artà-Artà:
The longest distance on this trip, today we will cover almost 14 km. We will climb one of the most attractive and typical mountains in the eastern hills, called Fanutx, a landmark with spectacular views over most of the island. From there we will then descend to the town of Artà where the trip ends.

Detailed information on each day or excursion

1 Day
Tramuntana (Tramuntana):
This trip is the perfect combination of mountains and white sandy beaches with clear turquoise water. We start in S’Alqueria Vella, walking up the “Camí dels Presos” (“the Prisoners’ Path”), an old path built by republican prisoners in the Spanish Civil War that is used by...

2 Day
Alqueria Vella-Betlem (Nature Park of Llevant):
The very beautiful and ancient tracks far from the crowds take us past old properties lost in time, dating from mediaeval Majorca such as the hermitage S’Hermita de Betlem or the old estate S’Alqueria Vella. The path is no more than half a metre wide for most of the way, with very impressive views out over the Bay of Alcudia. The day’s tour ends right by the sea, where we will enjoy a well-earned typical Majorcan picnic.

3 Day
Tossals Verds (Tramuntana):
We start our hike right in the heart of the Sierra de Tramuntana on another ancient track leading to the valley of Almallutx from Alaró, passing through the public access lands around Tossals Verds. During the walk we will pass by the popular mountain hostel of Tossals Verds, one of the most authentic such refuges on the island.

4 Day
Es Farrutx (Nature Park of Llevant):
The walk today climbs up one of the most attractive and typical mountains in the eastern range of the Sierra de Llevant, called Farrutx, which offers spectacular views over a large part of the island. It is a landmark with a curious shape and has lent its name to one of the local wines grown on Majorca, certified local produce, with a picture of the mountain on the label.

5 Day
Camí de s’Arxiduc (Tramuntana):
The archduke Ludwig Salvator of Austria was a great driving force behind the development of natural tourism on Majorca. Proof of this can be found in the numerous viewpoints and tracks located all through the area between Valdemossa and Deia, which he had built in order to enjoy the mountains and nature on the island.

6 Day
s’Esquena Llarga (Nature Park of Llevant):
This trip is a great way to discover the remnants of the old agricultural society of Majorca, with its surplus that was transported to the cities via the mountain pass of the “Camí dels Presos” (“the Prisoners’ Path”). This walk takes you up past terraces with old houses and barns...

Day 1: Porto Cristo: This easy excursion out of the coast leads us south towards Porto Cristo, a small coastal town where the famous grottos known as Coves del Drach are located. During the trip we will take a break in the charming location of Son Carrió, one of the smallest towns in the vicinity with only about 200 inhabitants.

Day 2: Artá: Day This is the day with the greatest height difference in this programme. We will head towards the town of Artá, which was the capital of the eastern part of the island in the era of the Moors. With its wonderful market full of local produce, Artá is the ideal spot for a short break to have a cup of coffee or buy a souvenir for the family at home.

Day 3: Manacor: This day is one of the longer ones in the programme and will see us pedalling towards the centre of the island. Manacor is the birthplace of the famous Mallorcan painter Pau Cédras and today it is the largest town in the region, with plenty of shops, busineses and public offices. Our trip takes us through the back streets and rural areas of this part of the island.

Day 4: Sant Llorenç: The trip includes a fairly steep descent along one of the most distinctive roads in the island, one of which leads us to the sea. This excursion is exciting and attractive, ideal for learning to move in this kind of terrain.

Son Macia: Day
This is the day with most hill work. We will head for the centre of the island through the little town of Son Macia, reading the Llevant shores and lush fields, and passing through the unique place called Fangar. This stretch runs through spectacular beaches on Majorca and becomes quite famous due to the controversy that arose when the owner closed off the public right of way and refused to allow hikers or anyone to pass through.

Artà: Day
We will head for the town that was the capital of the east coast. This place is a charming castle in the days of the Moors, along part of the rural route GR 223. With its wonderful market, Artà is the ideal spot to take a break for a cup of coffee or to buy a souvenir to take back home.

Colonia de Sant Pere: Day
This day gives us marvellous views of the Bay of Alcudia and the mountains of the Tramuntana as we cycle down the hill towards the seaside village of Colonia de Sant Pere. Our day starts on the east coast of the island and ends on the north coast, passing through the little town of Son Macia.

Es Bosc Vell: Day
This day finds us deep in the hidden recesses of what was probably the most unspoilt part of the island at the days of the Moors, passing along part of the rural route GR 222. With its wide spaces in the area around Es Bosc Vell (“the old wood”) make it a very beautiful place, although not known to many. This is the longest trip in the programme.

driving through spectacular beaches on Majorca and becomes quite famous due to the controversy that arose when the owner closed off the public right of way and refused to allow hikers or anyone to pass through.

The day finds us deep in the hidden recesses of what was probably the most unspoilt part of the island at the days of the Moors, passing along part of the rural route GR 222. With its wide spaces in the area around Es Bosc Vell (“the old wood”) make it a very beautiful place, although not known to many. This is the longest trip in the programme.
